

11th Anniversary of Sept. 11th 2001

Written by Mike Honda

Tuesday, 11 September 2012 15:54

---

We are deeply indebted to our men and women in uniform and we solemnly honor the heroic efforts of our firefighters, first responders, and emergency medical technicians whose selfless sacrifices speak to our enduring American values.

When anyone tests our resolve as a nation, we persevere in pursuing our democratic principles while protecting the freedom and integrity of every American, regardless of creed, ethnicity, or religion. On this day of remembrance, let's recognize what unites us and makes us an exceptional nation.