

Resources for Students

My office has many resources for students. Whether you are applying for financial aid, completing a research project, or looking for opportunities in the Peace Corps, contact my District Office to determine whether we can assist you.

About California

California History and Culture

How does the Federal Government Work?

Ben's Guide to U.S. Government

Learn all about Ben Franklin while he takes you on a tour of the U.S. Government.

Financial Aid

Find out how you can get help paying for college.

Get Help with Federal Issues

If you are experiencing a problem with a federal agency or need assistance with issues such as identity theft or a student visa, please contact my District office to determine whether we can assist you directly or find you the help you need.

How Laws are Made

This publication, written by the Parliamentarian of the House of Representatives, describes the procedures of Congress.

Internship Opportunities

Learn about the Federal Government and make a difference as you intern in my District or DC office

Page Nomination

Find out about how you can get hired to work in Congress while you're still in High School.

Students.Gov

A comprehensive information portal providing answers to your questions on education, career, government and more.

Visit Washington, DC

Let my office help you schedule tours of some of DC's most notable attractions.

Need help doing research for class?

Fedstats

The gateway to statistics from over 100 U.S. Federal agencies

Library of Congress

The Library of Congress is the nation's oldest federal cultural institution and serves as the research arm of Congress. It is also the largest library in the world, with more than 130 million items on approximately 530 miles of bookshelves. A special feature of the LoC is their America na Collection

National Archives

A gateway for resources about primary sources, activities and training for educators and students.

National Atlas

The best Federal source for national maps and geographic information.

How can YOU make a difference in the world?

Academy Nominations

If you are interested in applying to one of the Service academies, find out more about starting a career of service to our country.

AmeriCorps

Search for volunteer programs in your area!

Environmental Protection Agency

Save the Earth!

USA Freedom Corps

Make a Difference. Volunteer.

San Jose Leadership Council: 2011 Field Guide to Community Service

This is the fourth edition of The Field Guide, an award-winning publication, designed to help people get involved in our community.

McGruff.org

Crime prevention activities, tips and games from the National Crime Prevention Council.

National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism

Information on alcohol and resisting peer pressure

Peace Corps

Congressman Honda volunteered through this program in El Salvador- do you think you'll do it someday?

Student Advisory Council

Are you a high school student looking to become more involved in government affairs? Join Congressman Honda's Student Advisory Council. (SAC)

Take Pride in America

Find out how your school and city can improve our parks and forests.

Fun Stuff

Art Competition

See your art in the halls of Congress!

FBI Youth Page

Join in an FBI criminal investigation!

National Aeronautics and Space Administration

Find out about all things related to Space, Stars, Rockets and NASA.

National Security Agency

Make and Break codes!

Smithsonian Museum

The Smithsonian has collected more than 142 million objects—from flags and fossils, to sculptures and spacecrafts, to toys and tapestries. There's something for everyone at the Smithsonian. Check out Smithsonian Kids for lots of fast, fun, cool, scary, patriotic, and beautiful things from the Smithsonian!

Smokey the Bear

Games and activities from the USDA Forest Service and National Association of State Foresters.

U.S. State Department

The U.S. State Department works around the world. View maps and find out more about other countries, their foreign affairs, and what it's like to live outside of the United States.

Treasury Department

Learn the history behind the dollar.

The United Nations

Test your knowledge of flags from around the world