

Fun websites for kids

America's Story from the Library of Congress

Learn all about America's past: people, sports, jump back in time. The Library of Congress has lots of fun sites !

Ben's Guide to U.S. Government

Learn all about Ben Franklin while he takes you on a tour of the U.S. Government.

Bureau of Engraving and Printing

Play games as you learn the difference between real and fake money.

California Kids Page

Census Bureau

Learn about the U.S. Census, get facts about your state, and have fun with quiz questions.

Department of Agriculture

Where does our food come from, and who makes sure it is safe?

Dr. E's Energy Lab

Have fun saving energy.

Energy Information Administration

There are lots of ways to make energy - learn about them!

Environmental Protection Agency

Save the earth!

Federal Emergency Management Agency \(FEMA\)

Learn to be prepared for disasters and prevent disaster damage.

Freedom Corps for Kids

Make a Difference. Volunteer.

FBI Kids Page

Discover what it's like to work for a high-tech law enforcement agency. Fun for all ages.

House of Representatives Kids Page

Trivia and more! Special Feature: learn about how bills are made

Kids.Gov

The best page for finding government resources for kids.

Mapstats

Learn about maps and statistics

McGruff.org

Crime prevention activities, tips and games from the National Crime Prevention Council

NASA

Find out about all things related to Space, Stars, Rockets and NASA.

National Highway Traffic Safety Administration

Learn to stay safe on the roads.

NSA

Make and Break codes!

Peace Corps

Congressman Honda volunteered through this program in El Salvador- do you think you'll do it someday?

Smithsonian Museum

The Smithsonian has collected more than 142 million objects—from flags and fossils, to sculptures and spacecrafts, to toys and tapestries. There's something for everyone at the Smithsonian. Check out Smithsonian Kids for lots of fast, fun, cool, scary, patriotic, and beautiful things from the Smithsonian

Smokey the Bear

Games and activities from the USDA Forest Service and National Association of State Foresters.

State Department

The U.S. State Department works around the world. View maps and find out more about other countries, their foreign affairs, and what it's like to live outside of the United States.

Treasury Department

Learn the history behind the dollar.

United Nations

Test your knowledge of flags from around the world.

Veterans Affairs

Who are the people who fight to keep our country safe?

White House

Visit the White House and learn about kids and pets who have lived there.